Strategic Conditions Must Govern Polish Armies

SEN. CHAIRMAN SAYS HE HAS NO EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN CHARGES

Senate Campaign Fund Investigating Committee Quizzes White.

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 1.—Just before the committee met for the afternoon session, Senator Kenyon asked newspaper men when Governor Cox would reach Chicago on the trip west. He was advised that the Governor was expected, and asked if he would be subpoenaed to appear Monday, the senator said:
"The committee has done nothing in that. If we do I will announce it."

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 1.—Parley P. Christensen, presidential nominee of the Farmer-Labor party, appeared at the senatorial investigation of campaign funds today and asked to be heard. Senator Kenyon, chairman of the committee, once accepted the offer.
Mr. Christensen read a prepared statement in which he charged that both the Republican and Democratic parties are being financed by Wall Street and that which ever won, "the government during the next four years will remain in the hands of the combined capitalists and manufacturers who have been masters of the government during the past thirty years."
The candidate also charged that minor political groups and the press of the country had established an embargo, against publication of most of the utterances emanating from his party and "all the minority group."
He suggested that the government buy newspaper space and allot it equally to all political parties.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 1.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee, said on the stand today before the Senate committee investigating campaign expenditures, that he had no evidence to sustain any one of the charges made by Governor Cox, vis party's presidential nominee as to Republican campaign funds and fluors or as the alleged desire of contributors "to have back of them in industrial centers the bayonets of their puppets in office."
He told Chairman Kenyon that he believed the charges were true because he had confidence in Governor Cox, but he had not discussed them in detail with the nominee and brought nothing from him to aid the committee in sifting them.

"You Sure Of Ground?"
"I talked with Governor Cox last Sunday for a few minutes," said Mr. White. "I asked him: 'Are you sure of your ground?' He said he was and I told him: 'You are the boss and you run it.'"
Senator Kenyon asked if Mr. White did not consider it the "duty of the men who have this evidence, if it exists, to give it to us whether they are presidential candidates or not?" And when the witness did not reply the chairman said he realized the query might be embarrassing and he would not press it out of respect to Mr. White's relations with Governor Cox.

Brought No Proof.
Senator Kenyon read to the witness telegrams from Governor Cox to the committee and to Senator Reed, a number dated Aug. 24 and 23 and promising to furnish the investigators with information. The latter message told the Missouri senator that the candidate would "get some matters into your hands soon." Mr. White said he had brought nothing for Senator Reed. The latter explained he had informed the candidate the committee would welcome any information.

Mr. White said he was willing to abide by the judgment of Governor Cox as to when the material should be furnished the committee.
"Is it the idea then, that we are to sit here and wait until Governor Cox is ready to come to us," asked Senator Kenyon.
"I did not say that," replied Mr. White.
"But you have a speaking trip arranged for Governor Cox next week and you would not wish us to interfere with that," argued Senator Kenyon. "In fact we have no desire to interfere with it."
"The committee has jurisdiction over its own affairs," said Mr. White.
Cites Barnes Book.
Mr. White said he only example of a "sinister influence" backing the Republican party, which he knew of personally, was the Republican year-

Lord Mayor of Cork Spent Restful Night in Prison Cell.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Sept. 1.—Lord Mayor Terence MacSwiney of Cork, spent a restful night in Brixton prison and secured several snatches of sleep. Although very weak, he was bright and cheerful this morning. There were, however, unmistakable signs of severe exhaustion, dullness of the eyes and general signs of sinking as a result of his long hunger strike. Mayor MacSwiney's brother remained with him during the night.
Lord Stamfordham, private secretary to King George, has replied to a letter from Horatio William Bottomley, member of parliament urging the release of MacSwiney. He said that, even if the king favored the release of the mayor, it could be effected only by the sovereign's personal action in the face of the advice of his ministers, with the presumable result that they would resign.

Belfast, Sept. 1.—Fighting was resumed here this morning between Sinn Feiners, Unionist ship yard workers from the Shank Hill district and troops. Heavy firing continued nearly half an hour and it is feared the casualty list is heavy. The fighting centered about North street. Matters finally became too hot for the Sinn Feiners and they were dislodged with the aid of an armored car. The ship yard workers in their zeal to help the soldiers became a nuisance and the commanding officers asked them to withdraw.
It is definitely known that one man was killed in the North street encounter.
There was another bitter fight at the docks between ship yard workers and union dock workers and one dock worker was killed by the misdirected fire of his own party.

Sinn Fein police did duty in the Falls district on Monday night, but of course without the knowledge of the authorities. They closed public houses in that part of the city during the time they were on duty.

Today's Market Report

(By Associated Press Leased Wire.)

Wheat Stronger But Corn Market Sags

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Considerable firmness resulted in the wheat market today from hope of a good export demand. After taking two days of demand, a holding attitude had become widespread among farmers. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1/4c off to 1/4c advance, with Dec. 2.34 to 2.34 1/2 and March 2.31 1/2, were followed by a moderate general setback and then by a rally to slightly above yesterday finish.

Failure of frost predictions had a bearish effect on corn.

Furthermore, estimates were current that the crop would be the largest on record. After opening 1/4c to 1/4c lower, including December at 1.18 to 1.18 1/2, the market underwent an additional sag.

Oats were easy with corn, starting unchanged to 1/4c lower; Dec. 66 1/2c and later scoring other losses.

Big deliveries on Sept. contracts weakened provisions.

Most of the trading was in hard.

Later it was said 1,000,000 bushels of wheat had been sold to exporters at the seaboard. The close was unsettled 1/4c to 1/4c net higher with Dec. 2.35 and March 2.30 1/2.

Subsequent rallies in corn did not hold well, the close was weak 1/4c to 1/4c net lower with Dec. 1.17 1/2 to 1.17 1/2.

Corn Needs Month to Pass Danger Of Frost

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 1.—Special reports to Meteorologist Clarence J. Root of the weather bureau indicate that corn in the northern part of Illinois will be safe from frost in from 20 to 30 days, and in the central part from 30 to 40 days, and the south from 40 to 50 days. Corn at present Mr. Root says, needs warmer weather.

Some corn in the southern division cannot mature. In the southern counties much of the late corn is being placed in silos. Oats threshing is nearly completed. The yields are good to excellent. Fall plowing is general. The soil is very dry in parts of the north half of the state, but otherwise corn, meadows and pastures are much improved as a result of the recent good rains.

5,000 Pigeons To Race In Greatest Air Derby

Racing pigeons, back from training flight, resting before "trapping in". At right—Sending a letter to "him" by carrier pigeon

THE United States is to have a "derby" next month. As seems fitting where Uncle Sam is concerned, it will be the biggest affair of its kind in the world's history. It is to be a race of homing pigeons. Five thousand are to participate. St. Louis will be the goal. From 2,500 cities and towns within a 500-mile radius of the Missouri metropolis, the birds will be released simultaneously, in pairs.

Each bird is to carry a message from the mayor, or other official of the starting place, to Missouri's governor. Prizes will be awarded the "homers" making the best time. The birds, young and speediest of their breed, are now being conditioned for the race. In this the U. S. Army, through its recruiting stations, is participating.

September 25 is the date for starting the 5,000 pigeons in the race. It will be a feature of the annual convention of 8,000 Rexall druggists. Governor Gardner is expected to award the prizes to the swiftest birds. Mile-a-minute speed is predicted for the winner. Winning birds will be exhibited in the places from which they flew.

Acting as officials and advisers for the race and preparations thereof are U. S. Army Signal Corps officers of the Pigeon Section, and heads of the amateur pigeon racing associations in the United States. They say the event means much in this country for a sport popular in Europe and which, as a war arm, suddenly leaped into importance with the A. E. F.

In the St. Michel drive, 567 American birds were used. Of the 202 used in tank war, 24 were killed in action. In the Argonne offensive 442 American birds were used and 403 important messages delivered.

DEM. CHAIRMAN SAYS HE HAS NO EVIDENCE TO SUSTAIN CHARGES

book being published by William Barnes.

Discussion of the Barnes book disclosed that photographic copies of pledges of "moral and financial" support to the book, signed by prominent eastern men, including the Rockefeller family, had disappeared from the records, in which they were introduced Monday. A heated clash between Senator Reed and Senator Kenyon followed when Senator Reed insisted on an investigation of the disappearance of the papers.

"Do you understand that these pledges related only the support for the book," Senator Kenyon asked Mr. White.

"They could mean anything," the witness answered.

"Do you think they relate to support for the Republican campaign?"

"Yes, through Republican propaganda."

Examination Partisan.

After Senator Reed objected to the line of questioning Senator Kenyon retorted that the Missouri Democratic senator seemed to have "one line of examination for a Republican and wants to use another line for a Democrat."

Do you think the Barnes' book is a more sinister influence than the circulation through country newspapers of propaganda favoring the League of Nations, such as this story "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge" and having it paid for by a particular political party and having the man who reads it not know it is political propaganda, which is the more sinister?" Senator Kenyon asked when quite was restored.

"I don't apologize for wanting to circulate that story," Mr. White retorted. "The editor of the paper is responsible if he uses it. He isn't paid to print it."

The Barnes book shows right on its face who is behind it, but your "Uncle Sam of Freedom Ridge," wouldn't show who paid for it, which do you think is the more sinister?"

"I wouldn't know until I see the Barnes book."

"You haven't seen it and I haven't been able to see it."

"No I haven't seen it, that's sinister part of it," Mr. White retorted.

Senator Kenyon then questioned the witness about salaries paid speakers or other campaign workers and inquired particularly about Prof. John O. Hall, head of the Scandinavian bureau of the Democratic National Committee who was shown in testimony yesterday as negotiating with both parties for his services.

Says Hall Is Fired.

The inquiry developed that Mr. White had dismissed Prof. Hall last night following this testimony. "He seems to be bi-partisan," he said.

Yes he seems to be, Senator Kenyon.

He made the statement before a witness that he was offered $8,000 by the Republicans," Mr. White retorted.

"but he said he preferred to work for the Democrats. The joke is on us though for paying him $100 a week."

"Did he offer his services to the Farmer-Labor party?" Senator Kenyon asked.

"I think he will next."

TWO MILLION ENOUGH?

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Sept. 1.—George White, chairman of the Democratic national committee today told the senatorial committee investigating campaign expenditures that he thought a $2,000,000 fund for national committee purposes would provide for an adequate presidential campaign this year.

WOMAN SHOWS WAL TO SOLVE HOUSING

Builds 100 Model Concrete Houses; Her Secret Is
"Manufacturing."

BY EDWIN D. RIDER,
N. E. A. Staff Correspondent.

Rochester, N. Y.—A woman is leading the way in Rochester's fight for adequate housing—she's an engineer,
a master machinist, society woman,
banker, and a leader in Rochester's
Chamber of Commerce, too.

She is Miss Kate Gleason.
All her life Miss Gleason has been a trail-blazer—she has led and Rochester has followed.

She has enjoyed breaking down
tradition and entering fields of endeavor hitherto barred to women.
When but a girl she entered her father's machine factory as an apprentice! Later she attended the Cornell engineering school.

Miss Gleason is now engaged in her first venture in home building—the erection of 100 cozy little concrete houses. Each house is 20 feet by 20 feet, two stories, with a garage in the basement.

Adds Beauty.

The difference between these houses
and the Edison and Ingersoll concrete houses is that the latter were simply large concrete boxes, while Miss Gleason never has lost sight of beauty in her design. Her houses are an adaptation of the Dutch colonial style.

Each has an attractive fireplace, an
"L" shaped living and dining room,
small, but compact and completely equipped kitchen, full basement,
which includes garage, furnace, coal room and laundry, bathroom on the second floor, three bedrooms, and a 50-foot lot.

Miss Gleason designed the house and then had special molds and pouring apparatus constructed. She says the standard concrete apparatus now on the market is unsuitable for the building of small houses.

Manufacturing Process.

It would not pay to build one concrete house, she has learned.

"House building must be made a manufacturing process, not an individual, jobbing proposition," says Miss Gleason. "Building of concrete houses is advisable only in groups where your apparatus can be moved easily.
Then, too, you cannot evade the human element in house building or any other business."

The kitchen is completely furnished with the exception of pots and pans.
It contains a kitchen cabinet, refrigerator, gas stove, sink, mixing faucet, laundry and electric ventilator.

Economy of Space.

Economy of space is the dominant thing in Miss Gleason's unique concrete houses, with beauty running a close second.

The walls are eight inches in width and the floors four inches thick. Each floor is eight feet in height. The houses are built around a hill in terraces, each row eight feet above the other.

Three men can pour the concrete for a house in the time it would take 18 men ordinarily. It is difficult, Miss Gleason explained, to estimate how much time is required on one house because she's building 100 and placing the proposition on a manufacturing scale. However, the first house was completed in a little more than two months and now three a week
are turned out.

Many Honors.

Here are just a few of the honors
which have come to this woman:

In 1914 she was elected to active membership in the American Society of Engineers, the first woman to become a member.

She was elected president of the First National bank of East Rochester in 1918. Miss Gleason was then the only woman bank
president in the United States.

The Rochester Chamber of Commerce broke its rule against admitting women in 1916 and made her a full-fledged member.
Now Miss Gleason is devoting all her time to the building of concrete houses. She has faith in them as a big factor in solving America's housing problem. She is selling her concrete houses—with a 50-foot lot, garage and furnished kitchen, for $4,000.

There are now 1089 women in Austria for every 1,000 men, according to a census just completed.

The first automobile factory in Norway has just been completed.

BUMPER CROP—SUCKERS

Barnum died too early.
Had he lived till today, he'd have,
without doubt, revised his much
quoted statement to read:

"There's one born every second."
America's bumper crop this season,
to judge by every report, is suckers.

Fishing was never so good.
A conservative and reliable banker declared the other day that since the end of the war, three or four billions of dollars have been invested in new businesses—and most of it has been lost for the investors.

Get-rich-quick schemes, despite recent incidents such as the Ponzi case
and in the face of repeated exposures,
are flourishing with unprecedented vigor. Oil, rubber, autos, foreign exchange and a dozen other games are claiming their thousands of victims.

Roger Babson, noted financial writer, pointed out the situation in a manner the other day, when he wrote that money is like work; that the man who draws a far bigger salary than his job is worth is in danger of losing both the salary and the job, and that the man who expects a far bigger interest return than his money is worth is likely to lose the profits and the principal.

There is a world of safe investments
offered today with fair profits in return. No safe investment can ever offer the tremendous profits pictured by the prospectus writers for wild-cat promoters.

To the man who is puzzled to tell which class of investments to make,
here is an excellent recipe, given by a banker to a widow who asked his advice on investing some money in a brightly-painted oil scheme:

"Madam, if you have enough money
so that you can take a chance with it and not huffer if you lose it, buy the oil stock. But if you need the money;
if you can't afford to lose it; don't buy."

NO CURE-ALL

Slowly, radium, once hailed as the wonder element and the cure-all of modern medicine, takes its place with the other nostrums and means of modern medicine.

There is always the loud cry of the end of human suffering when a new drug or a new system of medicine makes its appearance. So it was with radium. Here was the new and sure cure for cancer, which kills its quota of one man in 8 and one woman in 12
each year.

But—it is a remedy, not a cure.
Radium has the quality of emanating days and these rays kill flesh.
Radium burns are severe and long in healing.

Cancer cells are, of course, abnormal cells and all abnormal cells are less healthy and less vigorous than the normal body tissue. Therefore, reasoned the medical men, that which attacks normal flesh should attack with even greater power abnormal flesh.

That is the basis of radium treatment for cancer. The cancer is exposed to the rays of radium. The rays strike through the wholesome flesh,
but, the theory runs, they do more damage to the cancer.

The cure of cancer by radium application, say the experts, depends largely upon the position, shape and duration of the growth as well as upon the patient.

Radium may be A cure for cancer

BRINGING UP FATHER.

BY GEORGE McMANUS

Maybe the bank of the future will enlarge its activities.
It will do your marketing for you.
And buy shoes for Willie if mother
too busy to run down town.
If you want the lawn mowed, or the snow shoveled call up the bank.
For quick work in dragging the fliver out of a ditch call the bank.
If you wake up in the night and serve burglars working overtime don't disturb the policeman; call the bank.
If you want to enjoy the matin
leave the baby at the bank untill you're ready to scamper back home.
Should you become possessed of desire to lick the baseball umpire pay
the job on to the bank.

Indeed, it is altogether likely that the day is coming when banks will be able to do anything for you except lend you a dollar without considering the matter a x weeks and unwinding mile of red tape.

The dancing masters have voted against jazz and in favor of the waltz. They're for the Blue Danub instead of the Danube Blues.

What's sauce for the goose is sauce
for the gander, says the Sinn Fein
when he remembers what hunger strikes did for the suffs.

A 1913 nickel without the buffalo head on it is worth $600; all the res are worth about a cent and a half.

but the best experts won't say yet that it is THE cure.

SOME RICHES!

The world is beginning to wake up to the reckless waste practiced for a half a century and more in the extraction and use of its natural resources.

Two-thirds of every ton of coal has gone up into the air or into the dump.
Enormous volumes of natural gas have been allowed to escape to the limits of an earth atmosphere.

Hundreds of millions of barrels of petroleum have flowed over the ground to utter uselessness.

And so all along the line.
Everywhere you hear of steps being taken to correct the wastefulness.
Thus, if conservation becomes the rule hereafter with new discoveries below
the surface, there will be less and less need of fear that the world will go short of coal and gasoline in the not very distant future.

Canada doesn't propose to be a squeezed-out orange like some sections of the United States. During the last five years coal fields and petroleum deposits have been discovered in Alberta, her northwest province, and already she is passing laws against the wasteful handling of these resources.
One of Canada's scientific investigators reports that "if the coal measures of Alberta can be carefully conserved and scientifically utilized and all the gas, oil and other by-products be recovered to the best advantage, the whole world can be supplied with fuel and oil, and for a thousand years from Alberta fields alone."

The body's blood supply is "laundered"
in the lungs. As the blood stream passes through them the impurities are removed and oxygen is supplied.

But if this washing of the blood is to be done properly we must have pure air to breathe and must take advantage of all our available capacity by deep breathing.

A slouching carriage when walking,
or a stoop-shouldered posture when sitting, contracts the chest and seriously interferes with proper breathing and therefore with proper purification of the blood.

Avoid acquiring a stoop if your daily occupation is such that you must work at a desk or sewing machine. Stopping is responsible for faulty circulation of the blood and for other evils besides impaired breathing.

Remember that your blood cannot be properly "washed" with half a lungful of air more than you can take a proper bath in a few pints of water.
Learn to sit straight and breathe deep. Twice a day—morning and evening—practice breathing exercises. Fill your lungs slowly and to their utmost capacity and then slowly empty them.

Many puny children have been developed into strong vigorous men and women through breathing exercises
and physical culture.

Remember, one of the most effective barriers to consumption is a well-developed pair of lungs.

ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

THE BUMBLE-BEES' BLANKETS

Mr. Bumble-Bee chuckled to himself when Tingaling, the fairy landlord, and the twins began to search for the lost Green Shoes in his sticky dining room. I wonder if it was altogether an accident that he had upset several honey-pots as he passed through for Mrs. Bumble kept her honey stored up in the neatest little round jars you ever saw.
It was so dim that the children and found their Green Shoes and slipped them on again. Even so, they didn't forget the errand they had come upon, and Nick had the big pocket-book all ready to put Mr. Bumble's rent into when he paid Tingaling.

"Now, Bumble," called the fairy-man. "Got your rent all ready for us? It's the thirty-second day of the

"I'm getting it," called Mr. Bee from a distance. "I'm back in the

THE BOOK OF ANN.

ANN GETS A VIEW OF THE LORI-MERS' PART IN SOCIETY.

"Oh la! la!" was not a kind of comment to make on Ann's anxiety concerning the checking account. But it expressed my mood. I wanted to throw up my hands, to toss her silly affairs into the air and have done with them. What did it matter to me now Ann behaved? Then I recalled Dad-dy's request to help make the child behave herself.

"Forget the money!" I said to her savagely. "And keep your mind on this: There are a few unwritten laws of matrimony besides the big one which is set down in the decalog. I know perfectly well that it is considered grand sport, now-a-days, for young married men and women to see how close they can come to smashing them all—without breaking a single one. That's about what you were doing when you danced with Ives this afternoon—alone in your parlor—to that horrid senseless sensuous jazz tune."

"I haven't got to conform to your last-century notions of right and wrong," whispered Ann. "As long as Jim doesn't object—"
"Stop right there. Jim loves you, doubtless, but do you honestly think he wouldn't object to what Daddy and I saw?"

At this Ann began to beat her pretty little French pumps upon the bare floor, and to weep loudly, but that kind of noisy grief never disturbs me in the least. I didn't like my job, but I had to go on with it. So on I went thus:

"And you'd better not let Daddy
hear of your being with Claude Ives again!"

Ann sobbed louder, and to stop her
as well as to satisfy my own curiosity
I asked:

"What did Mother Lorimer say about the performance?"
"She was nice—a whole lot nicer than anybody else, believe me! She said she knew I really didn't mean to be imprudent. She said she knew I was perfectly innocent in the matter!"
Thus spoke Ann in sweet triumph.
"She said she would rely upon me to be perfectly innocent always, because a lot of old hens—"

I frowned in the utmost astonishment and Ann corrected herself:
"No, of course she didn't say 'old hens.' She said a lot of very nice ladies were delighted to have a chance to raise an eyebrow—or shrug
a shoulder, or smile behind a fan—with all such things mean—when a Lorimer woman passed by. That's why I'm to be extra careful!"

"As a Lorimer, you're always in the spotlight, though mother would never put it so," I explained. "Might as

A Cincinnati bank has pushed the general scheme of banking business
quite a few notches ahead.

This bank will accept your money,
and will loan you some (if you have collateral security and come across with the interest charged), and will serve you in other well known bank-

But all banks do that.

This Cincinnati bank goes farther. It now accommodates the vacationist, the tourist, anybody with a trip ahead.

The bank will plan the trip; select the hotel; obtain the transportation.
It will get your theater tickets for you, and will help you choose a col-thing the bank won't do for you is to point out the few remaining wet spots

Ought to do something more for its customers.

Why G. O. P. Voters Should Re-Nominate Atty. Gen. Brundage

The Chicago Herald and Examiner, in a recent editorial had the following to say regarding the candidacy of Attorney General Edward J. Brundage, who is a candidate for re-election:

If the state of Illinois finally loses its 2-cent railroad rate it will be because federal authority supersedes state authority, and not because of any flaw in the state's legal position. The people of this state are indebted to Attorney General Brundage for making the state's position on the rate issue impregnable in a court of law. His clear and masterly exposition of the legal and constitutional points at issue brought a sweeping victory. The 2-cent rate was legally upheld though its enforcement has since been halted by a federal authority.

This is not the only time that Mr. Brundage has interpreted the office of attorney general to mean that its incumbent's privilege and duty is to protect the interests of all the people of the state. His record of public service, as he nears the end of his term, is enviable. It has been consistently impartial and nonpartisan in the big matters affecting public welfare handled by his office.

On his record alone Attorney General Brundage is clearly entitled to re-nomination by his party at the September primary. This is no disparagement of other candidates in the field. Republican voters must make a choice between candidates at the primary, and they are singularly fortunate in having a public official of the Brundage type to strengthen their ticket with.

The office of attorney general is one that should be held aloof from factional politics. It is not an office that any political party, or faction within a party, should be allowed to use as a pawn on the political chessboard.

When an incumbent of this important office demonstrates, as Attorney General Brundage has done, that his conception of public service is entirely above political broils, he has given Republican primary voters a compelling reason for his renomination.

Horsewhipping Does Not Cool Ardor; Go On Honeymoon Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Harry R. Daniel, secretary of S. W. Straus and company, New York, today was on a honeymoon to Decatur, Ind., bearing on his face and shoulders the marks of a horsewhipping bestowed by the bride's mother yesterday in the crowded Union Station here. The mother, Mrs. Charles M. Cooper of Indianapolis, thought he was going to elope with her daughter.

Daniel said he had brought his sister, Mrs. C. C. Shafer of Decatur to Chicago and had merely planned a brief visit with his fiancée, but "the marriage was really precipitated by Mrs. Cooper's action."

California Voters Switch to Opponents

By Associated Press Leased Wire

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 1.—Returns from yesterday's state primary election compiled early today from 3032 precincts of a total of 5129 in the state gave Samuel M. Shortridge, candidate for the Republican nomination for United States senator, a lead of more than 20,000 votes over William Kent, his nearest rival.

A somewhat unique situation was presented in the first, second and seventh congressional districts where the present representatives in congress not only won the nomination of their own parties, but also captured the nomination of another party ticket.

In the two of the districts Democrats took Republican nominations and in the other Democratic nomination apparently has gone to a Republican.

Says Milk Ass'n. Refused to Allow Farmers to Thresh

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Russell J. Poole, secretary of the city council high cost of living committee today arranged for threshers deked with American flags, for certain Illinois farmers. Investigation showed, Mr. Poole stated, that agents of milk marketing associations went to farmers with agreements for the sale of milk for one year and that if farmers refuse to sign threshers are not permitted on the farms.

Complaints were received from Paul Rieger, James McManaman, and Edward Lietzow of Cary, Ill., that a marketing organization refused to permit threshers to thresh 160 acres of wheat and oats belonging to Rieger and Lietzow.

EXPERIENCE NECESSARY

EDWARD E. WINGERT

Republican Candidate for States Attorney, at Primary September 15.

The State's Attorney is the legal protector of the people and their property, and their efficient defense was never more needed than now in this age of unrest, when grave crimes are increasing rapidly.

He is also the attorney for the County, a corporation of nearly 30,000 people, in its complex business affairs.

Whatever else the State's Attorney may be HE MUST BE A TRIAL LAWYER of demonstrated capacity. This capacity can only be shown by years of experience. The office, paying $2900 a year should be no field for experiment.

I have, in 31 years at the bar, tried many hundreds of cases, and in all the counties of the Circuit. This experience has not been limited to one sort, but has covered all kinds, criminal as well as civil. It is conceded that I can try suits successfully and without aid, and if elected I agree to ask no help from the County Board.

Where consulted in advance no client has ever lost money by relying on my advice.

I have never asked for or held any elective office, and do not believe that holding many offices justly entitles the holder to have others. I want this for one term only, and then another may have a chance.

Both men and women may vote at this primary and the support of all will be appreciated.

Cummings, Democrat, Gives G. O. P. Clean Bill on Cox Charges

Chicago, Sept. 1.—Former Democratic National Chairman Homer Cummings, on the stand before the Senate Committee investigating campaign funds, cut the ground out from under the Cox charges that the Republicans are raising a vast corruption fund.

Mr. Cummings testified after Republican National Chairman Hays had shown the Cox charges as to a $15,000,000 Republican fund to be absolutely untrue. Mr. Hays showed that the Republican budget for the national campaign was in round numbers, $3,000,000.

Mr. Cummings said that the raising of a $3,000,000 fund by the Republicans would "certainly not" indicate any corrupt purpose.

He went on to say that the Democratic committee spent $2,300,000 in the last campaign.

Chairman Hays showed the Republican national committee from December 1, 1918, to August 26, 1920, had $6,904 contributors from all states of the Union. The average contribution was $92.30.

Turning the tables on Cox, Chairman Hays brought out the fact New Jersey liquor interests set out to raise money for his election, calling him a "pronounced wet" and his nomination a great victory; that government funds were being used for Democratic propaganda; that the Democratic national committee set out to raise a huge fund of $10,000,000, as stated by the Democratic director of finance, W. E. Jamieson; and that the Democrats, in order to raise money, have assessed federal office holders.

Talk of Corbett to Referee Fight Mon.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

The first of the three preliminary contests will be started at 3 o'clock daylight savings time which means that Dempsey and the challenger probably will not get into action until 4 o'clock or later.

"I DIDN'T COME TO BENTON HARBOR TO GET LICKED," SAYS MISKE.

BILLY MISKE

By DEAN SNYDER.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Aug. 30.—Billy Miske didn't come to Benton Harbor to take a licking and pick off the loser's end of a purse.

Lurking in his head is the glimmering hope that he may knock himself into a title on Labor Day. He is confident of staying the 10 rounds with Jack Dempsey because he has done so twice before, once at St. Paul and the other time at Philadelphia. That was back in 1918.

As is the case with all contenders, who meet champions, he is taking a gambling chance that at some moment in the fight his big opportunity will come and the dope will be reversed in his favor.

Pair of Lessons.

His two lessons from Dempsey have given him confidence, for he stood the gaff in both—a thing that few others have done.

Miske's new found health is the chief buzz of conversation at his training stand. The camp is located three-quarters of a mile up the road from the battle arena where Dempsey is hanging away at Bill Tate and "Panama" Joe Gans. It is the same layout where Champion Benny Leonard prepared for his fight with Charley White.

Trains in Shade.

Ike Bernstein, Miske's trainer, is in charge. There is a splendidly equipped gym. The ring is staked off beneath the shade of thickly foliaged trees, for which Michigan is famous.

Keeping sparring partners, who can give him any kind of a workout, is his chief problem. There is a whole flock of them there to work on, but none of them hardly measure up to the mark. Jack Heinan, an ex-gob and the biggest of the lot, usually gets floored two or three times daily. Heinan was in Willard's camp at Toledo and he has boxed Jack Johnson. He says that Miske is the new Stanley Ketchel with the combined punch of Jack Johnson and Jess Willard.

Wears Headgear.

Miske makes a good appearance in his workouts. Wearing a padded headgear he bounces into the ring like a lightweight and begins to sock. If he fights that way on Labor Day Day Dempsey is going to be both surprised and pleased. The champion has it figured out that Miske is going to "pull and haul" when the Labor Day dingdong comes off.

Miske is the picture of health now. He has had a slight kink in his spine since boyhood. It has handicapped his ring career in the past. Recently St. Paul specialists jiggled the troublesome misplaced cartilage back into its normal position.

An Inch Taller.

"Billy hasn't really grown since then as some have believed," says Jack Reddy, Miske's manager. "He is now able to stand erect and it has increased his stature about an inch. Also he has gained about 20 pounds in weight. He is a living testimony of the chiropractic treatment for spinal trouble."

When Miske boxed Dempsey at St. Paul he weighed 178 pounds and 176½ at Philadelphia. There is no question but that the Miske of two years ago and the Miske of today are very different individuals.

No Fears Now.

He does not deny that he begged out of the proposed war benefit bout in New York City during the war.

"I was sick at the time," he says, "and knew that Dempsey would certainly knock me out. It would have hurt my entire career as a boxer and I felt that I was justified in not going on with him at that time. It's different now. I didn't come to Benton Harbor to get licked."

Miske smiled as he thought of all the things that a crown would mean to him.

Will Have Backers.

He'll have his supporters when he enroute from Chicago to New York carrying mail.

YOU CAN FIGURE IT OUT FOR YOURSELF!

DESLER, O.—Two aviators, W. L. Smith and Edward Haight, both of New York City, were severely burned enroute from Chicago to New York carrying mail.

NEW YORK—Samuel Lehman, well known musical conductor and author of "Everybody Works but Father" was killed by an automobile here Sunday, it became known.

NEW HAVEN, Conn.—Two persons dead, a score injured, damage to the tobacco crop and damage to farm buildings and general crops resulted from a series of electrical and hail storms that swept Connecticut.

These are busy days for Billy Miske as he trains for his Labor Day bout with Jack Dempsey. Pictures in the layout show him as Bob Dorman's camera found him in training camp at Benton Harbor. Upper left—Rowing a boat. Upper right—Getting ready to sock a sparring partner. Lower inset—Jogging along over Michigan roads with his trainer, Ike Bernstein.

climbs in the ring on Labor Day. His friends hope it that he is a new Miske, that he has stayed on his feet twice against the Salt Lake slammer and that the long layoff of the champion is in favor of the contender.

Most of the bookings will be stay bets and various forms of wagers on a knockout. None would hardly take the hazard that the title will change hands.

Miske and his friends do not think he is going to be toppled on Labor Day. So between now and then he is training with a happy heart amid an atmosphere of confidence and hope—much the same that prevailed in the Dempsey camp at Toledo 14 months ago.

Illinois Horseshoe Tournament is On!

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Sept. 1.—Champion horseshoe players of 27 counties are entered in the first Illinois horseshoe tournament, which will be played at Shoup's Grove, near here today, at the annual Illinois State Farmers' picnic. Playing will commence on a dozen courts at 10:30 o'clock.

Two players, constituting a team, represent each of the counties. A large silver loving cup, offered by the Illinois Agricultural Association is the prize for the state champion team and gold medals will be awarded members of the champion team and the two next best players. Courts have been arranged so that thousands of spectators may be accommodated. Fifteen thousand farmers of Illinois are expected at the picnic.

Names of the counties entered are as follows:

BLOOMINGTON WOMAN TELLS OF TROUBLE

Was Almost a Nervous Wreck When She Began Taking Tanlac, Says Mrs. Lontz, But Troubles Are Over Now.

"I was almost a nervous wreck at the time I began taking Tanlac, but in little more than a month it has made me a well and strong woman," said Mrs. E. E. Lontz of 808 Locust street, Bloomington, Ill.

"For more than a year I was in dreadful health, suffering with stomach, kidneys and nerves. I had a very poor appetite and was troubled a great deal with gas and bloating. I had a continual pain across my back right over my kidneys and sometimes all the way up to my neck. My nerves were simply all to pieces. I was subject to terrible sick headaches and at times felt that I just couldn't keep from screaming. My whole system was badly run-down and I felt weak and draggy all the time."

"As soon as I started on my second bottle of Tanlac I began to improve until now I am enjoying perfect health. I have a splendid appetite and it doesn't matter what I eat it agrees with me. My kidneys are in good condition and the pains have all gone from my back. My nerves are as steady as they ever were and I am free from those awful headache spells. I feel better and stronger in every way and am glad to do what I can to help suffering people about Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Dixon by the Public Drug & Book Co., and by the leading druggists in every town.

Illinois Central Proudly Calls Attention to It's Record

There is a good deal of talk among uninformed people to the effect that the railroads have not been functioning for some time, and are not functioning at the present time.

If this talk were to the effect that the railroads are facing the task of attempting to move a greatly increased volume of traffic with an impaired and insufficient plant, or that the railroads had not kept pace with the growth of the country, it would do no harm, because it would be true, but any statement to the effect that the railroads have not been doing their utmost, and are not at the present time doing their utmost, with the facilities with which they have to work, must not be permitted to go unchallenged.

Perhaps the best answer which I can make to this unjust criticism about the railroads not functioning is simply to give here a statement of the gross ton miles of freight handled by the Illinois Central system, per year, for the last ten years, and the number of passengers carried one mile, per year, for the last ten years, which I do, as follows:

Gross Ton Miles of Freight.		Passengers Carried One Mile.
1910	21,297,062,271	1910	745,818,345
1911	21,889,824,779	1911	811,282,510
1912	21,531,250,666	1912	807,969,807
1913	24,391,106,507	1913	815,812,320
1914	24,366,570,056	1914	832,881,282
1915	24,893,278,841	1915	747,797,713
1916	27,704,768,863	1916	850,797,693
1917	31,302,858,783	1917	982,111,873
1918	34,227,609,231	1918	1,026,898,494
1919	28,740,018,000	1919	1,142,044,011
1st 6 mos. 1920	17,568,332,000	1st 6 mos. 1920	568,884,894

GROSS TON MILES OF FREIGHT FOR THE MONTH OF MAY, 1920, WERE 3,253,664,000, THE LARGEST FOR ANY ONE MONTH IN THE HISTORY OF THE COMPANY, AND JUNE WAS A CLOSE SECOND.

The Illinois Central is but one railroad system out of many. I do not claim that its performances are any exception to the rule. No doubt many railroad systems have done as well, and perhaps some have done better than has the Illinois Central.

The Illinois Central personnel is anxious to serve the public even better in the future, and very earnest efforts are being put forth in that direction, but I hope our patrons fully appreciate that it will take time to restore our equipment and enlarge our facilities. I promise them that no time will be wasted.

Constructive criticism and suggestions are invited.

C. H. MARKHAM,
President, Illinois Central Railroad Company.

Merchant Marine Act Abrogates Treaties with Many Nations

By Associated Press Licensed Wire
Washington, Aug. 31.—Twenty-two commercial treaties of the United States including that with Great Britain ratified in 1815 and that with France completed in 1922, may be abrogated under the provisions of the merchant marine act. It was learned today at the state department. They described the situation which would result from literal application of the act as "radical" as to have raised a question as to whether so drastic a course had been planned by the legislators.
Protests against certain provisions of the merchant marine act have been presented to the department. It was said that countries have taken this course was not disclosed. The situation has been viewed as serious, however.

SHODDY IS ATTACKED.
Chicago, Aug. 31.—Reworked rags are replacing virgin wool in the sloth of manufacturers, according to speakers at the annual convention of the National Sheep and Wool Bureau of America in session here.
The chief substitute is shoddy, old rags reworked in some cases as often as eight times, said Byron Wilson, secretary of the Wyoming Wool Growers' association.
The French-Capper "truth in fabric" bill, compelling manufacturers to stamp every yard of cloth with its content of virgin wool and other material was endorsed.

Mrs. George Schaffer, of Ashton, was in Dixon today.

WHY CHANGE?
TO THE VOTERS OF THE COUNTY:
If you have a faithful and experienced employee in your store, bank or factory or on your farm, who has given you satisfactory service for several years, would you discharge him simply because another wants his job, especially so when you can re-hire the experienced man at the same salary you would have to pay an inexperienced man?

The Economy of Using Goodyear Small Car Tires
So-called bargain tires, made up for sensational sales and offered at ridiculously low prices, do not attract careful buyers.
They are far more concerned with what they get than with what they pay because they know that in the end it is performance and not price that delivers actual tire economy.
The popularity of Goodyear Tires, of the 30x3, 30x3½ and 31x4-inch sizes, is based on the fact that they deliver exceptional mileage at exceedingly low cost.
If you own a Ford, Chevrolet, Dort, Maxwell or other car taking these sizes, go to your nearest Service Station for Goodyear Tires and Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes.

30 x 3½ Goodyear Double-Cure Fabric, All-Weather Tread $23.50
30 x 3½ Goodyear Single-Cure Fabric, Anti-Skid Tread $21.50
Goodyear Heavy Tourist Tubes cost no more than the price you are asked to pay for tubes of less merit—why risk costly casings when such sure protection is available? 30 x 3½ size in waterproof bag $4.50
